Rome, July 25. N. S.

COunt Lamberg, the Emperor's Ambaſſador, having about a week ago received an Expreſs from Vienna, immediately parted from hence towards Lucca, where he ſtill continues; and his Servants and Retinue have followed him thither. Monſieur Caunitz, the Emperor's Auditor di Rota, is alſo preparing to leave this Court. The Pope appears not a little concerned at theſe Proceedings of the Court of Vienna, to which he gave Occaſion by the Indignity he offered to the Imperial Ambaſſador's Character, in Impriſoning a Gentleman of his Retinue; and he has held ſeveral Congregations to conſult upon the Means of accommodating this Difference. The Pope has lately held a Congregation of the Cardinals, to whom the Care of the Inquiſition is committed, wherein ſeveral Reſolutions were taken for the Confirming and further Explaining of a Bull formerly publiſhed, whereby the Opinions of Janſenius, in relation to divers Points of Divinity, are condemned. Cardinal Janſon has ſince been with the Pope, to return him Thanks in the Name of the French King for his Proceedings in this Matter. The Queen Dowager of Poland has been very earneſt with the Pope in behalf of the Biſhop of Poſen, (who was one of the chief Promoters of the Election of Staniſlaus to be King of Poland, and is now a Priſoner in the Caſtle of St. Angelo) deſiring that he may have this City for his Priſon; but has not yet been able to obtain it. All Commerce is forbid with the Iſland of Sardinia, upon Advice that ſome Veſſels had put in there which came from Tunis, where great Numbers of People have lately died of a Contagious Diſtemper.

Milan, Auguſt 1. The Duke of Vendoſme continues in the ſame Camp, his head Quarters being at Fieſco, his Right Wing at Azano, and his Left at Caſtel-Leone. Letters from Piedmont give an Account, That the Duke de la Feuillade marched the 28th paſt from before Chivas, with a conſiderable Detachment of his Army, to attack the Duke of Savoy's Horſe near the River Malon; but finding they were retired towards the Stura, he followed them thither, and, after a ſharp Engagement, with conſiderable Loſs on both ſides, obliged them to repaſs that River: Whereupon the Duke of Savoy quitted his Intrenchments at Chivas and Caſtagneto, and marched towards Turin, to cover that Place, having left a ſtrong Gariſon at Gaſſo, half way between that City and Chivas.

Venice, Auguſt 1. The Electreſs of Bavaria has been indiſpoſed, but is at preſent perfectly recovered; and it is ſaid ſhe intends to go ſhortly from hence to Bruſſels. The Imperial Army commanded by Prince Eugene, and the French and Spaniſh Army under the Command of the Duke of Vendoſme, are ſtill in the ſame Camps. The latter have laid a Bridge over the Oglio at Bardolano, which they are fortifying. The Grand Prior is come with a ſtrong Detachment into the Mantuan, to ſecure that Country againſt the Excurſions of the Imperialiſts, wherein they have been very ſucceſsful, and have gathered conſiderable Sums of Money by way of Contribution: And by the laſt Advices, he was marching towards Uſtiano, to endeavour to retake that Place from them. They write from Naples, That the Marquis de Bedmar, Vice Roy of Sicily, was ſailed from thence towards Meſſina, being attended by 5 Gallies belonging to that Iſland.

Falmouth, Auguſt 6. Yeſterday arrived here the Six Iſlands Packet-Boat, Captain Uring Commander, from the Weſt-Indies, but laſt from St. Ives. This day came in the Fluſhing Galley of this Port, James Treſtean Maſter, homeward bound with Wine from the Canaries.

Plimouth, Auguſt 7. This day arrived here the Patience of Sunderbourg from Dram, laden with Deals for this Place. The Eagle Galley of Briſtol, Shadrac Bede Maſter, and the Crown of Biddiford, John Lovering Maſter, paſſed at the ſame time by our Harbour, being both come from the Streights, and bound for London.
